CURATED CITY GUIDE

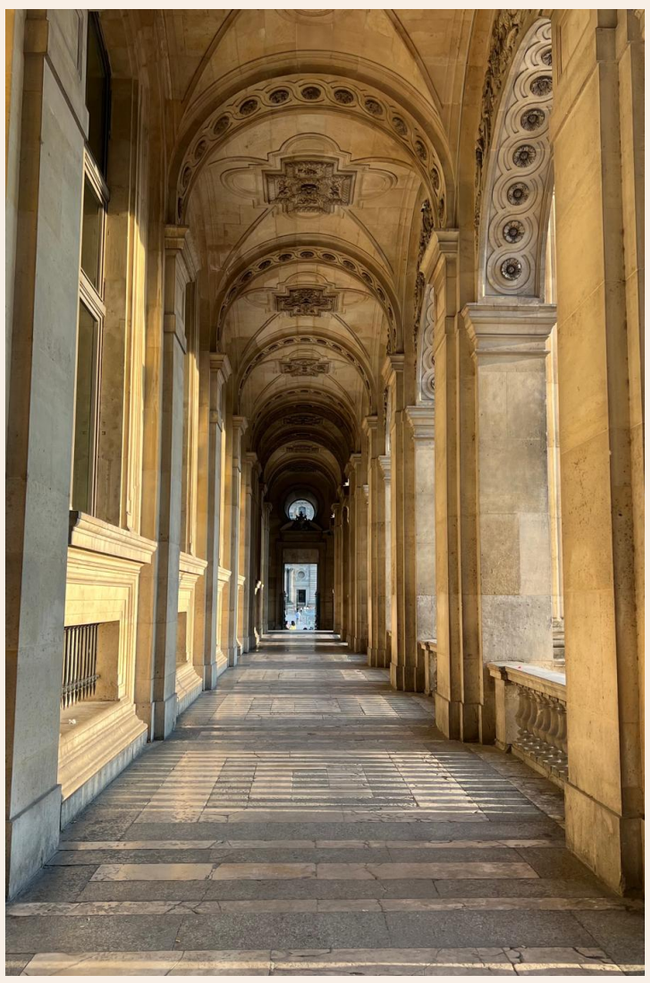

PARIS WITH FRIENDS

FOUR DAYS, COUNTLESS STORIES

Less planning. More enjoying.

WELCOME TO JOIN & JOY SPACE

Dear friends, welcome to Paris. Perhaps you are still planning your trip, or perhaps you are already on your way. Wherever these pages find you, we wish you beautiful discoveries, shared laughter and four unforgettable days together.

We have gathered the places we would love to show our own friends: beautiful corners, independent boutiques, creative experiences and tables worth lingering over. Follow the route when it suits you, make room for a surprise or two, and discover the Paris that feels like yours.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITORS

Paris holds far more remarkable addresses than any one guide could contain. Consider this a favourite first selection; the best part is discovering what else the city has in store.

Some photographs are original; others have been supplied from external sources.
